OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE.

No Flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the Stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save.

MONDAY MORNING, MARCH 6, 1865.

Mr. Lincoln's Second Term.

Four years ago Abraham Lincoln, called from his home in Springfield, Illinois, found the administration of the government of the United States committed to his charge. Clouds, darkness and danger beset the pathway of the nation. The present was gloomy and the future uncertain, and with the doubts that beset the hour, not the least important one was the question—who should be entrusted to manage the State, and who should lead our armies. Probably no ruler ever lived to whom was committed so perilous a task; no man ever shouldered greater responsibilities, and no one ever met them with a more conscientious intention to discharge them faithfully and disinterestedly, or fulfilled that intention more devotedly.

The past is known to the world—how the nation failed to appreciate and properly meet the emergency; how the rebellion made head and grew more formidable, overwhelming the Federal armies with disaster, seeming to wield a power that made it unconquerable, and commanding the secret sympathy of the greatest nations of the world. All this has been seen by the observant spectator, and it required faith and courage to believe in the success of our arms and labor for its achievement through all discouragements. The people have never faltered in the least. The nation, notwithstanding all the errors that have been committed, all the blunders that have marred the best laid plans, has remained steadfast, and has accomplished what seemed impossible. Our statesmen and rulers have learned much, not the least important truth taught them being the fact that it is the part of a General to carry on war. Our armies have become perfect, and our Generals have at last been found capable of doing justice to the bravery of those who follow them.

The second administration of Mr. Lincoln commences under happier auspices than promised for the first. Some things that were oppressive then have vanished and are no more to be dreaded. Slavery is extinct to all practical intents. The rebellion is now sounded, and its depths are known. The calibre of public men is ascertained. The capacity of our generals is proved, and the valor of our armies makes them invincible. Most necessary fact of all, the people have been tried, and not found wanting to sustain and support the Government; and now the uncertainties that hedged in the first advent of Lincoln to the Presidency have been all dispelled, and the power of America—her capacity to rule herself, to preserve unity at home and command respect abroad—has been established to the satisfaction of the world, and despite debt and losses of life incurred, the future of the nation promises more than ever it did before.

To achieve the desired result, let us remain firm in supporting the policy of Mr. Lincoln, and soon the end will come of the present conflict. Our leader is tested by a stern experience that places him above suspicion, and let us put forth all the efforts requisite to decide the matter soon, that the second Administration of our President may see peace restored, and witness a growing harmony between the States, never again to be interrupted. Peace hath its victories, and with its reign again commenced, the greatest victory to be achieved, is to make the Southern fields teem once more with wealth—Southern homes be filled with happy occupants, and Southern prejudice yield to the enlightened influences that should pervade the nation, and to a unity of interest that will make the many seem as one.

THE OREGON BRANCH MINT.—Mr. McBride has forwarded us the following proceedings in Congress on the Mint question, published in the Congressional Globe:

Mr. McBRIDE. I ask unanimous consent to introduce a bill to relocate the United States branch mint provided for by the act of July, 1864.

There was no objection, and the bill was read a first and second time.

Mr. McBRIDE. I ask consent of the House to make a statement in reference to this bill. It will be recollected that a bill passed at the last session establishing a branch mint in Oregon, and fixing its location at Dalles City. It is well known that at the time of its passage there was considerable controversy in regard to the proper location of the mint. That controversy was in my State one of a good deal of warmth, and, among the friends of different localities, somewhat acrimonious. There were differences among gentlemen on this floor representing the rival interests as to the proper point, but after full consultation we agreed upon Dalles City as the most eligible, and it was named in the bill. Subsequently the Legislature of Oregon met, and, differing with myself in the action taken, have memorialized Congress on the subject and have asked the removal of the mint to Portland, Oregon. In obedience to their instructions I present this bill, and shall ask, when the memorial arrives, which it has not, that it may be referred to the committee having charge of the bill. I thank the House for its courtesy, and move that the subject be referred to the Committee on Commerce.

The motion was agreed to.

SENATOR HARDING arrived on the Sierra Nevada Sunday morning, and we learn from him that the bill removing the location of the Branch Mint for Oregon to Portland would have passed without opposition, had the memorial of our late Legislature reached Washington. He seems to think there is no question about it. Mr. Harding is confident that things are working well; that the rebellion will soon be overwhelmed, and that peace will soon dawn upon us again. During his Congressional career, Mr. Harding has consistently supported the Government, and we know of no votes cast by him that fail to meet the approval of the Union men of Oregon, who elected him to the United States Senate.

COAL OIL IN CALIFORNIA.—A correspondent of the San Francisco Bulletin offers his experience to the public, which he has acquired at an expense of $50,000 experimenting to manufacture coal oil from the Asphaltum Springs of California. He states that the oil which abounds in these springs cannot become kerosene. In company with an experienced chemist, he established works, endeavored to make a burning article and signally failed, though clear, beautiful looking oil was produced, the crude material yielding 80 per cent. of the manufactured article, but it wouldn't burn. Hundreds of gallons a day flowed from these wells, and the oil covered the surface of the sea near by. He named several other persons who had experimented at great cost and abandoned the attempt to make kerosene from the Asphaltum Springs.

Messrs. White & Bauer, of San Francisco, have again placed us under obligations for interesting files of Eastern papers, including pictorials and copies of leading political journals from the prominent Eastern cities. As their business is to supply the Pacific coast with such publications, we can recommend all desiring to subscribe for any Eastern journals or magazines to do so through their agency, and so secure earlier numbers than can be had by mail.

Letter from Senator Nesmith.

PORTLAND, March [illegible]

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

I have this day [illegible] the [illegible] letter from Hon. J. W. Nesmith. [illegible] Mr. Nesmith, I will state that when I wrote him, I supposed Secretary of State would forward such memorial to our delegation in Congress. [illegible] however, forwarded the [illegible] and the vote on the final passage of the memorial which probably reached Mr. Nesmith about the [illegible] January, and I doubt not that Mr. Nesmith will [illegible] his influence to have the Mint located in accordance with such [illegible]. We may have been wrong [illegible] and [illegible] our own interests [illegible] were promptly [illegible] that no money is expended on the Mint until we can be heard in Congress. H. W. CORBETT.

WASHINGTON, January [illegible]

H. W. CORBETT, Esq., PORTLAND, OREGON—Dear Sir: I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 26th of November, in which you present reasons why the Branch Mint should be located at Portland instead of the Dalles.

Whatever considerations may have originally controlled my action in favoring the Dalles as the proper point at which to locate the branch mint, they are now overcome by what I am unofficially informed has been the action of the Oregon Legislature.

If the statements which have reached me were correct: that the Legislature passed a memorial or resolutions that the branch mint should be located at Portland: that action of the Legislature, I shall feel bound to recognize as an instruction to me, the obligation of which I would not disregard or avoid if I could.

When I am furnished with what is an expression of the will of the Legislature in an official form, so that I can make it available, I shall not delay in my efforts to comply with it.

It must now be nearly three months since the Legislature took action upon this matter, and I am mortified and astonished that I have had no official information upon the subject. I have not even seen a copy of it in the newspapers.

It is certainly singular that some person in your town, has not furnished me with a copy of the act of the Legislature upon a subject in which you all seem to take so deep an interest. I can hardly be expected to know by instruction, what that action may have been. If the action of the Legislature was intended to influence Congress in making the proposed change of location, it seems to me but proper, that some one here should be able to state what that action was.

The law now locates the branch mint at the Dalles, and the Secretary of the Treasury may at any moment proceed to have it executed and the appropriation expended; the only obstacle which I could interpose to his actions would be my word that rumor had it [illegible] that the Legislature of the State had expressed an opinion in favor of its location at a different point. That sort of mere rumor would hardly be sufficient to deter the Secretary from the execution of the law, and expending the appropriation. It would certainly be but a poor foundation upon which to ask Congress to change the law.

But two months now remain of this Congress, and if that period expires without any Congressional action upon the subject of changing the location of the branch mint, I trust that the people of Portland will place the blame where it properly belongs, and not hold the Oregon delegation in Congress responsible for a non-compliance with a memorial or resolutions which none of them have ever seen.

Since the meeting of Congress, I have twice written to citizens of Portland stating the embarrassment under which we are laboring for the want of the memorial or resolutions passed by the Legislature of our State, and I trust that some public spirited citizen of your town will take the matter in hand and see that a certified copy of the proceedings of the Legislature in reference to this matter is sent for. Though it would in all probability be received too late to aid in the subject for which it was intended, it would still be some satisfaction to the members of the Legislature to know that in course of time Congress had received official information of their action upon this subject.

I have to request that you will exhibit this letter to any person in Portland who may take an interest in the subject of which it treats; and its publication would be proper, in order to vindicate the delegation from a charge, such as has occasionally been made in one of the newspapers of your city, wherein it has repeatedly been alleged that we had disregarded a former memorial upon this subject, when in point of fact no such memorial ever reached here.

I am respectfully your obedient Servant,

J. W. NESMITH.

Letter from Canyon City.

CANYON CITY, Feb. 27, 1865.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

How do you suppose the good people of the County of Grant feel without a mail? How do you suppose they relish the knowledge of having every week a clean new Oregonian arrive at the Dalles, all nicely done up in a wrapper, with their individual names written on the outside, and then lie there and rot in a mail bag with a villainous padlock attached to it? We are a peaceable people up here in the mountains, and a patient people too; but when our newspapers are thus maltreated, our human nature will out. Since the discontinuance of the mail between this point and the Dalles, we get no papers whatever, and our letters cost us the sum of twenty-five cents each, besides postage—unless they are sent by Express the entire route. But we certainly owe thanks to Wells, Fargo & Co. for the promptness with which they perform their portion of the letter service to and from Canyon City.

THE MINES.

New discoveries of gold are being made almost every day in this vicinity. The hill diggings are now exciting great attention. Prospecting, however, is still difficult, owing to the severity of the winter, which, it appears, will never break up. A [illegible] now being prospected in the vicinity of Marysville, about three miles from here, is said to be as rich as Florence basin in the Salmon river country. Gulches all around are yielding handsome prospects. "Mobile Fork" is already ascertained to be both rich and extensive. [illegible]cott's Gulch is the great quartz region. The quartz I have seen from that district would astonish any man accustomed to read of men losing money by investments in quartz leads. The precious metal is visible all through the rocks; and yet it is not "pocket" quartz. There is a fortune there for more men than a few—but it may require the investment of money to get it.

THE BREAD RIOT.

Last Friday evening a number of persons, probably overcome by the pressure of the hard times, banded themselves together for the purpose of inaugurating a riot. The object was—or the alleged object—to obtain flour to live on until the mines could be worked. This was, however, a mere pretext, as there is no necessity for such action. There is plenty of flour as well as all other provisions here, and for sale at no very enormous figures. Flour is sold at twenty dollars per hundred, and respectable men, who have not the ready cash to pay for it, can purchase on time. The riot movement was nothing more nor less than a pretext upon which to base a raid for the purpose of general plunder. When the move became known, everybody made ready to give the rioters a warm welcome. But their knees weakened before the appointed time for the depredations to begin, and they abandoned the enterprise.

A SUICIDE.

On Thursday last, Mr. Augustus Bradley committed suicide at Marysville, by shooting himself in the chest. The cause of his thus putting an end to his life is not known. From some papers found upon his person, it was inferred that he was partially insane on the subject of the war. The deceased was a native of South Carolina, if I am not misinformed. He was highly esteemed as a gentleman of honor and honesty. He owned some valuable mining claims.

THE WEATHER

is simply, but most emphatically, terrible. The winter seems no nearer at an end than it did a month ago. The moon changes, the wind changes, everything but the temperature of the air and the frozen earth. These two are unchanged, and to all appearances unchangeable. Snow, snow, snow!

[illegible]

Everybody is muttering; everybody has a grievance. Hard times and hard luck fill all mouths with hard words.

Washington's birthday was celebrated by the citizens in a fashionable manner. The finest ball ever given in Canyon City marked that [illegible] day.

The concert given on the 18th instant, by Prof. Trowbridge's music class, was a success, both as an entertainment and as a means of raising money. The proceeds are to be used by the M. Church in the erection of a house of worship.

DATES TO MARCH [illegible]

SAN FRANCISCO, March [illegible].—The [illegible] have found an indictment against [illegible], member of the Board of Supervisors, charging him with bribery in receiving $2[illegible] from [illegible] D. Rice, in consideration of which [illegible] was to [illegible] the purchase [illegible] property belonging to Hibernia [illegible], which property was represented by Rice and others. Cummings was arrested at [illegible]. John M. Peterson, formerly Capt. of the [illegible], is under arrest for appropriating two hundred and sixty dollars of the funds of that company. [illegible] of [illegible] and his experiments [illegible].

Lopez Agremo attempted to commit suicide by cutting a vein in his arm. Lott Walls, first mate of the Great Republic, has been arrested, charged with barbarity, &c., cruelty toward the crew of that ship. The St. Andrew's Society has offered a reward of five hundred dollars each for Walls and the second mate, who are still at large.

Captain William E. Hull of the Second Regiment, C. V., has been appointed to act as [illegible] Agent of the Government in the granting of passports to parties emigrating.

Robert Haley has been indicted for stealing. He gave bail.

Confidence Mining Company, Gold Hill, have declared a dividend of one hundred dollars per foot.

The celebration went off according to the programme. The day was almost universally observed. No business of any kind was transacted. The Grant Club will wind up the day with a torch-light procession.

The steamer Brother Jonathan from San Pedro arrived this morning.

Two men named Gardner and Lessater were murdered near Texas Hill on the Gila river and robbed of $3,400.

A party of whites were attacked by Apaches in the vicinity of Fort Yuma, several of whom were killed.

Wm. H. [illegible] committed suicide at San Gabriel Mission.

Recent advices from Arizona mines are not very favorable.

MARKETS.—A few sales were consummated yesterday afternoon. Flour—500 quarter sacks Alviso, sold at rate $15; 400 quarter sacks, Golden Gate Mills at $15. We quote firm city brands at $13 75@$14. Wheat—500 sacks sold at $[illegible]. Barley sales were made in lots of 3,200 sacks, from good to extra choice brands at $[illegible]. Oats—Small sales of Oregon at $[illegible]. The market is firm for white and bargains at [illegible] to 13½ cents.

The ship Herald has arrived, after a passage of 144 days from Liverpool, England.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 4.—Montgomery street is brilliantly illuminated to-night, the Grant Club are marching in procession with transparencies and torches, the streets are crowded with spectators and the greatest enthusiasm prevails.

NEW YORK, March 1.—Letters from Grant's Headquarters say: Though all is quiet in front of Richmond, active operations before long are looked for. The utmost vigilance is observed on our lines. The military railroad has been completed to a point——

[Here communication was interrupted between here and Jacksonville; but as the overland wires are up again, we look for full reports to-morrow.—ED.]

Letter from the Dalles.

DALLES CITY, March 3d, 1865.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

It is always a matter of speculation to a correspondent as to how his letter will be received, whether writing to an individual or for the press, especially for the first time. This is, to a considerable extent, the feeling of your humble servant to-day, and I shall necessarily limit myself to a short space, as I do not purpose trying your patience in perusing a long letter from an uninteresting locality. This latter expression may do injustice to some one in this city; if so, I humbly beg his or her pardon, and take all the interesting part to myself. I will also say that, perhaps, being an entire stranger here, is the cause of my feeling no particular interest in the place or its surroundings. One thing, however, I will say, and that is, that I like the clear, cool, bracing atmosphere mightily, and feel confident that in that respect, it certainly has a marked advantage over Portland. All the passengers seemed to be of the same persuasion, and burying the feeling of disappointment felt by not being able to get up the Columbia, a spirit of general good humor and don't-care-much-liveliness prevailed.

☞A large number of your citizens are in the city, bound for the upper country; but the weather clerk is inexorable, and he will no more let up on the programme of weather as gotten up, than will Miss Secessia relinquish her claims of human bondage, until the genial Northern atmosphere melts away the ey-links one by one. We arrived here on Tuesday evening, expecting to take the Celilo train the next morning; but news came in that the Tenino had got a hole or two punched in her bottom, and was hauled up for repairs; and that the Spray had not returned. Up to this date (March 3d) nothing has been heard from her. The hotels are all well filled, and at the Umatilla House there are about 100. But somehow [illegible] the landlords, Messrs. Handley & Sinnott, manage to make all comfortable by giving them good beds and most excellent grub. Kind reader, if you ever come this way don't forget to call on these model hotel keepers, and if you don't corroborate what I say, charge the bill to us! The Western Hotel in Portland and the Umatilla at the Dalles, are, as far as our experience goes, model hotels, and worthy the patronage of the traveling public. How long we may be compelled to stay here I cannot tell, as the upper river has fallen over twelve inches in the last three days. The snow here is about four inches deep, but this afternoon the sun is shining out and the indications are that we may leave in a few days. Several passenger wagons left here yesterday and to-day for Bannock and the upper country, and also many foot passengers. Judging from the temperature yesterday and last night, we should suppose that they would experience some pretty severe weather.

To-day we walked out to the Government buildings. They are situated on a piece of ground over yonder from the town. On the south side of the enclosure are the officers quarters—beautiful gothic buildings with enthusiastic bay windows, in which (we mean the houses) we suppose most any one could make themselves really comfortable. Capt. Powell is in command and is much respected by all under him. We caught a glimpse of him running from one of the buildings to the other, but as it was snowing we did not hail him.

We called at the Mountaineer office and found the boys busy "making up" the forms. The editor, Mr. Newell, is still in Washington attending to the wants of his patrons in regard to the mint question.

Considerable feeling is manifested in regard to a young man by the name of Powers, who was, at the request of the Governor, instrumental in raising a company there, with the understanding that he should be mustered as First Lieutenant. When the company was ready for muster, he was left out in the wet, and, as generally reported here, without any reason or apology whatever. As we are not thoroughly posted in regard to the matter, we offer no comments. But I have written already longer than well, and shall close. If ever we leave this place for the upper country, you may hear from me again, if agreeable to you.

EUREKA

IMPROVED SELF-ADJUSTING

CLOTHES WRINGER

AWARDED THE FIRST PREMIUM

AT OREGON STATE FAIR IN 1864.

Abstract from Examining Committee's Report of the San Francisco "MECHANICS' INSTITUTE" INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION, OF 1864:

"CLOTHES WRINGERS.—A variety of these Excellent Household Helps were found competing for popular favor. Though none of them are entitled to a Premium we consider the EUREKA, exhibited by M. E. Traver & Bro., worthy of honorable mention." (NOTE.—No Premiums were awarded to articles of Eastern Manufacture.)

The EUREKA CLOTHES WRINGERS are made superior to all others in CONVENIENCE and DURABILITY by the use of

PATENT ELLIPTICAL STEEL SPRINGS,

Which produce a UNIFORM PRESSURE upon garments and Clothes of every size.

The IMPROVED EUREKA has the HINGE CLAMP, which will fit any Tub or Box perfectly. Its entire construction is simple and excellent. Every Family should have one. It will soon RE-PAY ITS COST IN SAVING Time Labor and Clothes. M. E. TRAVER & BRO., General Agents.

PRIVATE ENTERPRISE.—For many years it has been believed that the Tualatin river would again be made navigable, and afford the residents of Washington county with the means of getting to a market from the farms and towns of their valley. The old, deep-rooted jealous spirit of rivalry that has almost forever reigned in Oregon between her towns, has probably been the cause of the matter not being fully demonstrated long before the present day. The Tualatin river runs nearly parallel with the Willamette, and debouches into the latter a short distance above Oregon City. There is a portion of it that could perhaps never be made navigable, and the only really certain method of having river crafts run upon it successfully, and on the Willamette in the same trade, would seem to be by the projecting and construction of a canal from the head of Sucker Lake to intersect the Tualatin about four and a half miles from the Willamette, in a westerly course from Oswego. This scheme has been thought of, but has never been attempted. A method of opening up communication, however, has been actually commenced the present week, and a force of men are now employed in building a rude railroad from the head of Sucker Lake, one and a half miles to the Tualatin river, which is a private enterprise, entered upon by Mr. J. C. Trullinger, of the Oswego Mills, for the purpose of obtaining logs from the section of country watered by the Tualatin. This road is to be completed and in running order by the first day of May, and must pave the way for a more certain and steady means of communication to the Plains. We are informed that the plan covers the only feasible route of breaking the belt that divides the two rivers, and at its place there is an excellent opportunity for building locks and a canal, so that it is not quite improbable but that steamboats will be running at some future day between Portland and Hillsboro.

UPPER COLUMBIA NAVIGATION.—Colonel J. S. Ruckle, President of the O. S. N. Company, has returned to this city after several days sojourn at the Dalles. We are informed by him that the low stage of water prevailing on the various rapids of the Columbia above Celilo has rendered navigation impossible. The Okyhi which was the last boat down, was so badly damaged that it became necessary to haul her out for repairs, and it was the opinion of her commander, Capt. Gray, that she could not again reach Umatilla, until the water should raise. The steamer Spray, which left Celilo for Umatilla on Tuesday, had not returned on Friday, ordinarily she should have been back on Wednesday. On Saturday the river was lower at the Cascades than has been known since the spring of 1855. This state of things it would seem, cannot last for any great length of time, and before many days we expect to hear of the river being sufficiently high for the usual run of business, until such time persons going in that direction will be very apt to be disappointed if they leave Portland expecting to go through without detention.

MR. J. A. WETMORE, plasterer, is apprehensive that the good portion of community will confound his name with that of A. J. Wetmore, whom we reported as being committed from Recorder's Court on Friday last. Men have a repugnance to seeing their names in print in that connection, and Mr. W. has a dread at seeing one there similar to his own. If all men were like him we are of the opinion but little necessity would exist for Recorder's Courts, as he is a very peaceable citizen. While upon this subject two other cases—of old Oregonians, and long-time dwellers of the city—were reported in the hands of the Police on Saturday, and for offences which should not excuse at least one of them, but as they have very nervously requested we leave the curious to search the records for their names. It will not avail a person to come at us with "daggers" in his eyes and fists doubled up, to demand such favors, but we have a tender heart, and despite our resolves to the contrary must yield to the humble supplications of erring men. To report part of Saturday's proceedings in Recorder's Court would be justice, no doubt, but, in accordance with our promises of mercy we let the whole matter rest.

THE LADIES' SANITARY AID SOCIETY.—Why it was that the ladies of the Sanitary Commission met with no better success on Saturday we are unable to say, but we venture to assert that it was not owing to any lack of good management on their part. They had prepared an excellent dinner, and the cost was certainly not excessive. In the evening Hon. E. D. Shattuck, Col. C. H. Larrabee, H. W. Corbett, Esq., and others, addressed an audience upon appropriate topics, at the same place, while Mrs. Higgins executed some choice singing. The aggregate receipts to the Commission were but about $160. To-day the ladies propose giving another lunch, which is, properly, in sterling worth, an excellent dinner, and we hope that between the hours of 12 M. and 3 P. M. their labors will be rewarded by numerous liberal guests at the table.

OVERLY CROWDED.—Passengers by the steamer Sierra Nevada complain bitterly from inattention to the rules governing the number of passengers to be taken at one trip on that vessel, and state that they were in "bedlam" from the time the lines were let go from the wharf at San Francisco. Stopping at Crescent City and Humboldt, delaying the voyage did not tend to heighten any good feeling, and we learn some are so much agrieved that a suit is apt to be commenced to-day against the ship in the United States District Court.

COMMERCIAL.—We learn by private telegram, that the barkentine Jane A. Falkenburg was to sail for this port on Wednesday or Thursday last from San Francisco. The bark Industry is now out eight days on the voyage up, having sailed on Wednesday evening the 25th. The date has not yet been fixed for the Sierra Nevada to leave this port for Victoria and San Francisco, but will probably leave on Tuesday evening. The steamer Geo. S. Wright will leave for Victoria this evening, if possible.

PERSONAL.—J. W. J. Pierson, long connected with the sale of Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines in this city, has located himself with R. G. Brown, at the Agency in San Francisco, and is now here for the purpose of looking up and appointing a successor for this trade in Oregon. Mr. Pierson has been of our most liberal patrons, and has met with great success in the line of his business while with us, building up considerable of a trade.

CATCHING SMELT.—A lady just from Monticello brings an abundance of these delicate fish for her family use, and reports that they are so plenty in the Cowlitz river, persons catch them with common garden rakes. As a school was passing, this lady's brother caught bushels of the fish by the process of handling the above named implement.

THE CALIFORNIA MINSTRELS.—The above troupe of Minstrel performers arrived on the Sierra Nevada from San Francisco, and will appear at Eureka Theater. They come well recommended by the San Francisco press, and will, undoubtedly, prove themselves worthy of patronage. See advertisement.

THEATRICAL.—The performance at Willamette Theatre, on Saturday evening, of "The Moors in Spain," was indeed a thrilling tragedy, the parts were most trying, and the rendering of each seemed to be a tie with the Company. It was beyond our appreciation, perhaps. The great tragedy of "King Lear" is to be performed this evening.

ASSISTANT OPERATOR.—The increasing business at the telegraph office in this city has rendered it necessary for an assistant to be appointed, and Mr. A. S. Strong, late of the Salem office, is at present engaged with Dr. Plummer.

PAPERS, &c.—McCormick, of the Franklin Book Store, received per steamer yesterday, all the latest papers from the East and California as well as the best periodicals and magazines.

TO RENT.—The desirable dwelling and farm of Thos. Carter, within the city limits, is for rent, as will be seen by notice in this morning's paper.

DEATH OF A PIONEER.—We see by Sandusky papers the death of Hon. Eleutheros Cooke, of that city, aged 77 years, on Christmas day. Mr. Cooke was an early settler and distinguished citizen of Northern Ohio, having made his home on the Western Reserve in 1820. He occupied prominent positions before the public, and represented his district in Congress in 1830. One of his sons is Jay Cooke, the National financier, so well known in connection with Government loans. E. N. Cooke, Esq., our State Treasurer, is a nephew.

THE LIBRARY ASSOCIATION.—At a meeting of the Library Association, held on Wednesday evening, at their rooms on First street, the President submitted the following report, which has been handed us for publication, in accordance with the expressed wish of the Association:

To the Members of the Library Association: [illegible]—In compliance with the constitution of our association, we have assembled here to [illegible] our first annual meeting. In the language of that instrument, the object is "The establishment of a Library and Reading Room, the collection of a Cabinet, scientific apparatus, works of art, and other literary and scientific purposes." Toward this end I cannot say that we have accomplished all that may have been expected or desired. It affords me, however, much pleasure to inform you that in the comparatively short time, which has elapsed since our organization, we have laid the foundation of a beneficent institution, which I hope will some day rank with those that reflect honor to many of our cities and towns.

The long delay in the purchase and arrival of our books, has been a source of disappointment to many and regretted by all. But the delay arose from causes beyond our control, yet we may consider ourselves, in some measure compensated for this annoyance, in the fact that our agent has been thereby enabled to expend our money at least twenty per cent. more to our advantage than if the books had been purchased immediately upon the reception of our order. Some five hundred volumes have been received, and the remainder of those ordered, near eleven hundred volumes, may be expected to arrive soon.

Our Reading Room is very well supplied with the principal papers, periodicals and magazines of this coast, the Atlantic States, and a few published in Europe. We have been favored with several donations of maps, charts, and pictures, in themselves useful and ornamental, besides evidencing an interest and sympathy by the donors in our laudable enterprise.

The liberal donations made by the friends of the organization have been expended, and I trust, judiciously, and in a manner to meet your approbation. For the particulars of this expenditure, I respectfully refer you to the report of the Secretary, hereto annexed.

The rooms occupied by the association were rented on what was deemed liberal terms; but in addition to the rent, we had to meet the expense of fitting them up; and on account of this expense, at the close of the year we were in debt $[illegible]. Within a few days, and since the date of the Secretary's report (Feb. 1st), an effort has been made to liquidate this amount, which resulted as follows:

Initiation fees [illegible]
Quarterly dues [illegible]
Donation [illegible]

Amount of debt unpaid [illegible]

We have at this time 160 members. Of this number there are but twenty-two who are in arrears for monthly dues, which speaks well for the interest manifested in the association, and the punctuality of its members.

Our expenses for the present are merely nominal. Yet there is an urgent necessity for rigid economy, donations and new members.

In order to maintain this association according to the purpose of its organization, to meet current expenses, to furnish it with all the desirable newspapers, periodicals, magazines, and to add to its Library all the new publications of merit and general interest, as soon as published, we ought to have at least five hundred prompt paying members. When we consider the character and number of our present population, we might reasonably expect, with proper exertions, to have nearly twice that number on our roll of membership.

No person will attempt to deny the many advantages of this association to the people of Portland, young and old, permanent and transient. It is well calculated to be useful and elevating at home, and give us a desirable character abroad. Under these circumstances it is a serious cause of regret to find several of our members, who could afford to be generous, withholding their aid from us. It is to be hoped that they may yet see the duty and propriety of aiding liberally in this worthy and beneficent enterprise.

To make this institution what it ought to be, it must not be left altogether dependent upon the officers of the association. There is not one member but who, by his example and influence, can render it valuable aid by procuring new ones, thereby not only benefiting himself, but many others. In behalf the officers of this association I therefore most urgently entreat you all to cordially co-operate with them in their efforts to build up and sustain the Portland Library, and make it the pride and honor of our growing city.

Respectfully submitted, W. S. LADD,
President Portland Library Association.

What it was that Changed Miss Flora McFlimsey from a Frivolous Girl into a Sensible Woman.

"Oh, May!" said Miss Flora McFlimsey one day,
"We must buy no more goods of importers, they say;
"We must study economy—saving must try;
"So a Sewing Machine I'm determined to buy.
"Now, which is the best? pray tell, for you know,
"You have tried every kind, you do nothing but sew;
"Which is your favorite? mind! don't tell fibs,"
May answered instanter, "Why—Willcox & Gibbs."

"'Tis a dear little beauty, a bright busy bee,
"The shape is exactly a capital G,
"You can learn all its ways in a single half hour,
"And feel that you've gained an all-conquering power.
"'Tis so noiseless and neat! 'tis a sweet little elf;
"To the rich it brings ease, for the poor it makes pelf;
"I never have now that sharp pain in the side;
"And I owe this great comfort to Willcox & Gibbs."

Miss Flora, still doubting, but anxious to see,
Drove down Front street to a hundred and three,
Where STEWART & GOURLEY, ever willing to show,
In ten minutes had learned Miss Flora to sew.
She bought a machine; then homeward she hied,
A little child's apron, for practice she tried,
And would you believe it? two nice little tucks,
She made in two hours, on Willcox & Gibbs.

Absorbed and delighted, no note did she take
Of time, or the lover who came in its wake.
For her lover he was, that great muff Master Willie
With moustache all wax, and expression all silly,
In vain did he scold her, and swear like a Turk
'Gainst the dignity, beauty and goodness of work.
She's all changed! What has done it? I never tell fibs,
'Tis that magical tiller of Willcox & Gibbs.

ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTER—PAIN RELIEVING AND STRENGTHENING.—The history of these plasters would occupy more space than can be spared within the limits of this advertisement. Suffice to say, that the most eminent chemists and physicians of the United States and Europe were consulted as to their composition. They are made porous, so that the transpiration of the perspiration can go on efficiently where the plaster is applied, without, as with other plasters, causing the accumulation of acrid fluid, which corrodes the skin and occasions many unpleasant sensations not necessary for the cure or alleviation of affections for which a plaster is usually applied. India rubber, myrrh, and other choice gums and essences of the vegetable kingdom, are the material ingredients of these celebrated plasters. While they are possessed of all the soothing and warming qualities of almost every other plaster of the United States Dispensatory, they are without many of their inconveniences. In the language of one who has experienced much benefit from their application in a chronic disease of the kidney—"They stick closer than a brother, and are a friend like a true friend." For weakness of the back, pains in the side, stomach or chest, and for the alleviation of the pain attending Rheumatism, they are without an equal.

The Agent in San Francisco WILLIAM F. BRANDRETH, Office at Messrs. Crane & Brigham's, feels great pleasure in forwarding to the Formula of their celebrated plaster to all Physicians who may desire to see it.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters should be in the possession of everybody in the mining regions. [illegible] the gold seeker is liable, it has no superior. While it is quite palatable even as a beverage, it is cheap and powerful in its effects upon the system. In all cases of Diarrhea, Dysentery, and the prevailing fever consequent upon exposure, the Bitters will be found invaluable as a corrective. No man should enter upon the exposed life of a miner without being provided with Hostetter's preventive of stomach disease, nor should any of those who are now engaged in the occupation, fail to have recourse to the Bitters. Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere.

Cure Your Cold, Save Your Lungs.

NEWELL'S PULMONARY SYRUP

HAS

CURED THOUSANDS!

And it will Cure You!

"A Cough is generally the effect of a Cold, which has either been improperly treated or entirely neglected. When it proves obstinate there is always reason to fear the consequences, as this shows a weak state of the lungs, and is often the forerunner of Consumption."—Buchanan's Domestic Medicine.

STOP THAN COUGHING!

Some of you can't, and we pity you. You have tried every remedy but the one destined, by its intrinsic merit, to supersede all similar preparations. It is not surprising you should be reluctant to try something else after the many experiments you have made of trashy compounds foisted on the public as a certain cure; but

NEWELL'S Pulmonary Syrup!

Is really the VERY BEST remedy ever compounded for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Consumption. Thousands of people in California and Oregon have been already benefited by its surprising curative powers.

WHAT KILLED HIM?

Dr. Hall, in his "Journal of Health," speaking of the death of Washington Irving, asks the above question, and adds: "He might have remained with us for some years to come, had it not been for advice, kindly intended, no doubt, but given in thoughtlessness and reckless ignorance.

He Had a Cold!

Which, by some injudicious prescription, had been converted into asthma." Let me say to Dr. Hall that that prescription was not

NEWELL'S PULMONARY SYRUP.

KEEP IT IN THE HOUSE, use it freely, give it to your children upon the slightest indications of a Cold, and you will don't so, [illegible] do who have become acquainted with its merits.

FOREORDINATION.—That distinguished modern philosopher, Josh Billings, has the following:

"We kummence life—we are somebody's baby—we have flaxen hair—we go to district skule—we slide down hill—we play hookey—we have great differkulty with our nozes—we learn how to smoke, and find ourselves men grown all to-onst. Thus far nature has piped and we have dansed, and there haint been no fiddler to pa, but now cums in the speshial ordainment times. I have been thru with awl this myself and stood on the threshold, a young man, looking around, ready to be ordained. I felt as though I would give $75 at least if sumbody would come along and ordain me, and let me pitch in. I waited for six weeks, if I rekollect right, and I never got the fust smell of any ordaining. Then I konkluded to ordain myself, hit or miss. The fust thing I tried on was 80 acres of land in the western kintry. I ordered the venison and wild turkeys and possums to leave, for I was agoing to farm. I ordained a log house and much rale fence immegiately, and put in a crop uv wheat, and procured swine and a yoke of staggs.

I worked 2 years, had the ager and little crops principally, and managed to sink the farm, staggs and all. I haint seen either uv them from that day, and don't think I want tu. I didn't seem to be specially ordained for farming in the western kentry.

Since that time I have tried every kind ov buziness that I could hear ov, and hain't been specially ordained yet in mi knolledge. The fault all lays in the different kinds ov bizness. I haint the least doubt. The bizness that was designed for me probably haint been ordained yet, but I intend to keep boring, and when I do strike ile, there will be a good time generally in mi immegiate naborhood. I have got any quantity ov friends (tha don't seem to cum by ordinashun) I got mine, and manage to keep 'em by not asking 'em for anything but advice; you can't ask anything ov a man that he loves to give more, and that kosts him less than advice."

BUYING A WIFE.—We copy the following from one of President Fairfield's letters in the Morning Star, dated Cairo, February 27th.

Speaking of marriage recalls a talk with our dragoman, yesterday, on our way to the Pyramids. "Well Mahomet," I said to him, "I see all the women have their faces covered: how do you manage the matter when you think of getting married? Didn't you ever see your wife's face till after she was your wife?"

"No, sir, not till I was married; but when I thought that perhaps I would like to marry her, I sent my mother or my sister, you know, to see her; and if my mother or my sister tell me she have a big neck, or an ugly face, or is too fat, or is deformed, or is not any good looking, then I don't marry her, you know. But if they tell me her good-looking, and is all right, then I ask her father if I may have her, you know; and if we can agree on the price, all right; I marry her you know."

"But what about her own consent? Did anybody ask that?"

"O, no compel her; if her not willing her father not force her, you know."

"That is all right, certainly; what price is usually paid?"

"O, not always the same; hundred pounds, fifty pounds, twenty pounds, ten pounds—different prices you know."

"How much, for example did you pay for yours?"

"I pay twenty pounds."

"Well, what do you think about it; did you make a good bargain?"

"He?"

"Do you think now that she was worth as much as that?"

At this he shrugged his shoulders in the peculiar way common to Germans, Italians, and some Orientals.

"O, I didn't care for de money; it's my 'ligion, you know, to pay for my wife; and I pay twenty pounds!"

I had quizzed him sufficiently, and the matter was amply elucidated!

A DAY'S RATIONS.—When our soldiers, says the Washington Chronicle, confined in the hospitals provided for their benefit, sometimes feel disposed to find fault with the liberal and comparatively bountiful supplies provided for their comfort and subsistence, which, we understand, generally consists of forty ounces of food of excellent and substantial quality, they should contrast their condition with that of their brave and gallant comrades who have unfortunately fallen into the hands of the enemy and been incarcerated in Southern camps and prisons. Mr. J. C. Wetmore, military State Agent of Ohio, last evening showed us a ration brought by one of the exchanged prisoners, who recently arrived at Annapolis from Andersonville, Georgia. It was tied up in a little cotton bag, and its weight was six and a half ounces. It consisted of four ounces of meal, two ounces of rice, and half an ounce of salt. Upon this scanty fare, an able bodied man, in the full vigor of health, was compelled to subsist, and was often forced to eat the articles above referred to in their raw state. It is not to be wondered at that our men present such an emaciated and distressed appearance upon their return from the South, and if all the feelings of humanity had not been eradicated from the hearts of the chivalry, one would suppose that healthy and comfortable condition in which the rebels are sent to their homes would induce them to treat the Union soldiers in a more humane manner.

A young lady, when invited to partake of the pudding, replied, "No, many thanks, my dear madam. By no manner of means. I have already indulged the clamorous calls of a craving appetite, until a manifest sense of internal fullness admonishes my stay; my deficiency is entirely and satisfactorily satisfied.

"Annie, asked an ardent swain of a pretty girl, "do you love your mother?" "Oh, indeed I do!" was the answer. "Well, then, will you give me a kiss for her sake?" the lover asked. "No, John, I can't do that; but you may kiss me for your mother's sake." And the young man did.

"Is there any thing the matter with you?" said a physician to a person who had sent for him. "O, dear, yes, I am ill all over; but I don't know what it is, and I have no particular pain nowhere," was the reply. "Very well," said the doctor; I'll give you something to take away all that."

TALK ABOUT HEALTH.—During the damp and cold season the old dress of the [illegible] legs is a fruitful source of [illegible] head, throat, and liver are [illegible] frequent sufferers.

The legs and feet are farthest in the central part of the body. They are [illegible] like the trunk, [illegible] by the [illegible] the damp cold [illegible]

For these and other [illegible] they require extra covering. [illegible] highest [illegible] give our extremities more [illegible] than any body. We must wear upon our legs in the coldest [illegible] two [illegible] The body has [illegible] them four thicknesses [illegible] which, with its [illegible] overall [illegible] lives, while their legs [illegible] cotton under a tailor. They [illegible] come to me about their headache, palpitation of the heart, and congestion of the liver. Yesterday, one said to me, "All my blood is in my head and chest. My head goes bumpety-bump, my heart goes bumpety-bump." I asked, "How are your feet?" "Chunks of ice," she replied. I said to her, "If you so dress your feet and legs that the blood can't get down into them, where can it go? It can't go out visiting. It must stay in the system somewhere. Of course the chest and head must have an excessive quantity. So they go 'bumpety bump,' and so they must go until you dress your feet and legs in such a way that they shall get their share of blood. In the cold season of the year I left Boston for a lot of a tour before the lyceums, going as far as Philadelphia, and riding much in the night without an overcoat, but I gave my legs two or three times their usual dress. During the coldest weather men may wear in addition to their usual drawers a pair of chamois skin drawers with great advantage. When we ride in a sleigh, or in the cars, where do we suffer? In our legs, of course. Give me warm legs and feet, and I'll hardly thank you for an overcoat.

My dear madame, have you a headache, a sore throat, palpitation of the heart, congestion of the liver, or indigestion? Wear one, two, or three, pairs of warm woolen stockings, and thick warm shoes, with more or less reduction in the amount of [illegible] about your body, and you will obtain the same relief permanently that you derive temporarily from a warm foot bath.

I must not forget to say that a thin layer of India rubber cemented upon the boot sole will do much to keep the bottom of your feet dry and warm.—Dr. Dio Lewis.

THE ETIQUETTE OF MERCHANTMEN APPROACHING NATIONAL FORTS.—The Moniteur de la Flotte publishes a circular issued by the Spanish Minister of War in consequence of an English merchant ship having been sunk by the batteries of Tarifa and Isle Verde. The Minister reminds the captains of merchant ships of the ordinary rules that should be observed by ships approaching a fortified seaport. When the ship arrives within gunshot, and the forts of the town hoist their national flag, the captain of the ship ought to accept the invitation, and hoist in return the flag under which he sails. Should he neglect this formality, the batteries are to fire, first a cannon loaded with powder, which is called a warning. If the ship has not hoisted any colors within ten minutes the batteries are to send a ball a short distance from her bowsprit, so that the rebound may be seen by the men stationed at the cathead. Should the ship neglect the second warning, the batteries will fire another ball, but this time at the ship itself. The circular concludes by saying that the English ship which was sunk by the Spanish batteries refused to hoist her colors notwithstanding the usual warnings. "Consequently," says the Spanish Minister of War, "the captain can only blame himself for the loss of his ship."

The Eclectic Medical Journal argues in favor of men wearing a full beard, and among other things says: "What would be said of him who would shave off his eyebrows or pull out his eyelashes, or have his head shaved all over? Such a practice would be pronounced uncouth, unreasonable, unhealthy, and necessarily wrong; yet if the hair of the head pertains to the laws of life and nature, who dare say the beard has a less important office to fill."

Certificate of Dr. Hayes,

It is well known that the Medicinal effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible.
In the Peruvian Syrup, this desirable point is attained by COMBINATION IN A WAY BEFORE UNKNOWN; and this solution may replace all the proto-carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica. A. A. HAYES, M. D.

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DIScovery of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to over estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It acts upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS and GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

And to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless, until Dr. Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. [illegible] R. Chilton of this city, and Prof. Booth, U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly," July 6, 1860, page 7).

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER,

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Full directions accompany each bottle.
Sold by all Druggists. Price, $1 per bottle. Prepared by Dr. H. Anders & Co., Physicians and Chemists, New York.

ALLEN'S

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease any way connected with the disorder or derangement of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The drooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active, and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER,
INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL
URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Males or Females,

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.
